

Vote Alex for Communications Officer

Hi, I'm Alex Parker and I'm hoping to be your Communications Officer for LUSUMA this year!

Why am I suitable for the role?

- I'm a good listener, approachable and hard working. I always want to complete tasks to the best of my ability, therefore feel as though I am an ideal person to raise concerns to, as I will deal with them properly.
- I really love photography and media, meaning this role where I will manage your LUSUMA website and photos of events is perfect for me!
- In 6th form I was on the leadership team so know what its like to work within a team/committee.
- I'm organised and efficient.
- INTROweek and OUTROweek are amazing and I would love to get involved with organising these; making them as enjoyable as they can be for everybody involved.

What will I do?

- Produce more regular newsletters keeping you guys up to date with LUSUMA and sub-society events.
- Ensure the LUSUMA website is sufficiently accessible and publicised to all members, including freshers before they arrive, in order to help provide the best information, as well as making sure current LUSUMA members are able to get the most out of it.
- Quick turnover of photos – Everyone loves a good Instagram!
- Improve LUSUMA activity on Social Media, making people more aware of upcoming events and as a means of improving two-way communication between all students and LUSUMA.
- Going from 2nd to 3rd year will mean I will be experiencing the transition from pre-clinical to clinical teaching, so I will be able to help with that and feedback, especially being the first year on the new curriculum.
